

I am very concerned about over concentration of media ownership in a few hands. I feel the quality and diversity of coverage has declined significantly in the last several years - both in television and in radio. Please limit the number of media outlets a single person or corporation can own. In addition, monopolies like clear channel stations should not be permitted. Thank you for your consideration.